Dua for healing someone

We, the physicians, have now come to accept a fact known to our patients for centuries: that healing is from God, and we are just an instrument of the Healer. We give the same medication to two different patients with the same medication to two different patients with the same type of medical problem or perform similar operations on two patients of the Healer. We give the same medication to two different patients with the same type of medical problem or perform similar operations on two patients. simple luck. As Socrates put it, "I dress the wound and God heals it." This was also acknowledged by the Prophet Abraham, and when I am ill, it is He who cures me" (Quran 6:17). Healing from the Quran The Quran is not a textbook of medicine, rather it contains rules of guidance that if followed will promote good health and healing for the heart and for those who believe in guidance and mercy" (Quran 17:82) Healing for the heart and for those who believe in guidance and mercy to those who believe in gui from the Quran is of three types: a. Legislative effect: This includes faith (iman) in God as not only the Creator but the Sustainer and the Protector. This also includes the medical benefits of obligatory prayers, fasting, charity and pilgrimage.b. Health Guidelines: Health-promoting items from the Quran and the tradition of the Prophet Mohammed (peace be upon him) including the use of honey, olives, fruit, lean meat, avoiding excessive eating, and the prohibition of alcohol, pork, homosexuality, sexual promiscuity and sex during menstruation.c. The direct healing effect. This most likely uses the medical benefits of echo. Echo of sound is such a powerful force that it has been used to blast off mountains. Now the miniaturized version of echo is used in medicine to break kidney stones (lithotripsy), gallstones, and even vegetations in the subendothelial bacterial endocarditis (SBE). Listening to the recitation of the Holy Quran has been shown in a study conducted by Dr. Ahmed E. Kadi and his associates to lower blood pressure, heart rate, and to cause smooth muscle relaxation in Muslim Arabs, non-Arab Muslims and even in non-Muslims. It is postulated that the echo target of "Alif Lam Meem" (the first three words of Surat AlBaqarah-the 2nd chapter of the Quran) is in the heart and that of Ya-seen (chapter 36) is in the pituitary gland of the brain. Thus the Prophet Mohammad always stressed reading the Quran (Quran-recitation) loudly and not silently by saying, "The comparison between a silent reader and a recitor is like a bottle of perfume when it is closed and when it is opened." Use of Meditation in Prayer and Healing prayer of each supplicant when he asks Me. Let them listen to My call and believe in Me, that they may walk in the right way" (Quran 13:28). 4. "Remember Me, I will answer your call" (Quran 40:60). 3. "Those who believe and whose hearts find rest in the remembrance of God, for in the remembrance of God do hearts find rest" (Quran 13:28). 4. "Remember Me, I will remember you; thank Me and reject Me not" (Quran 3:152). 5. "Remember God standing, sitting and reclining" (Quran 3:35). 8. "O you believe! Remember God with much remembrance and glorify Him in the morning and evening" (Quran 33:41-42). Sayings of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God most of the Prophet Muhammad, like all other prophets of God, was engaged in the remembrance of God the dhikr (remembrance) of God." 2. He was asked which people are most virtuous and most highly esteemed by God on the Day of Judgement. The messenger of God (P) replied "Those who remember God often." 3. It is narrated in a hadith Qudsi (direct revelation to Prophet Muhammad) "God Most High says I am as my Servant thinks I am. I am with him when he makes mention of Me. If he makes mention of Me by himself, I make mention of him to Myself. If he comes to Me a hand span, I come to him running." Thus meditation/remembrance has been a practice of all Sufi sheikhs. In the words of Sheikh al-Mursi "dhikr (meditation) pleases God, defeats and drives evil forces, increases livelihood, makes the personality more prestigious, cleanses the heart, removes the faults and saves the tongue from lying, gossip, backbiting and hypocrisy while engaged in the remembrance of God." Seeking Help with Prayers According to Imam Ghazali, illness increases livelihood, makes the personality more prestigious, cleanses the heart, removes the faults and saves the tongue from lying, gossip, backbiting and hypocrisy while engaged in the remembrance of God." Knowing this nature, we are told by the Quran -"O you who believe, seek help with patience and prayers, as God is with those who patiently persevere" (Quran 2:153). The Prophet Muhammad used to comfort the ill when he visited them and would say the following prayer: "O Allah remove the hardship, O Lord of mankind, grant cure for You are the Healer. There is no cure but from You, a cure which leaves no illness behind." He would also make following prayer for his own health: "O Allah cure my eyesight from any illness" (repeated 3 times). Do Prayers Work? Yes they do. Dr. Larry Dossey in his book "The Healing Words" has documented the healing effects of prayer. Citing one example from the research conducted by Dr. Byrd at San Francisco General Hospital in 1988, 393 critically ill heart patients admitted to the intensive care units over a 10-month period were divided into two groups. Patients categorized into group (B) were not prayed for by name until they left the hospital. Those in group (B) were not prayed for by name until they left the hospital. Those in group (B) were not prayed for by name until they left the hospital. left the hospital early, had a lower incidence of cardiac arrest, 2-1/2 times less incidence are the cardiac arrest, 2-1/2 times less inciden for us even while we are sleeping. The Prophet Muhammad advised us to say prayers from Quran (Surah Ikhlas, Al Falaq, Annas and/or last verse of Al Baqra (2:286) before going to sleep. My Own Practice I do dhikr in all my free time, especially while driving, and I pray for myself, my family, my friends and my patients by name, knowing that cure is only from God. One time I visited a critically ill patient who had an adrenal tumor (pheochromocytoma) and was in hypotensive shock. I asked me to pray. So I placed my hand over the site of the tumor and made the prophetic prayer and left. The next day when I came, I was surprised to see her sitting up in bed smiling. She told me that in the evening, the radiologist x-rayed her again and found no trace of the tumor. The Sufi Practices In the treatment of diseases, Sufis use prayers and the knowledge of specific verses of the Quran and the names of Allah. This is called the Science of Tawidh (Taweez). They use science of numerology associated with Arabic alphabets. Some sample tawidh is given for illustration. One must know the healing is not in a piece of paper, words or numbers, but only from Allah. In my humble opinion, Tawidh is only a way to become God-conscious and receive His mercy as a result.
